Management consulting firm rapidly scales product development

A consulting firm with over $700 million in revenue, faced challenges in scaling their development operations to meet tight release deadlines

ADDRESSING THE MANDATE

To quickly meet deadlines on a series of critical projects, the client needed best-in-class engineering expertise, delivered at scale.

- A service partnership to help validate design, development, testing, support and maintenance parameters

- Ramped up development operations to reduce time-to-market

- Three engineering teams to develop their product in time for their launch deadlines

THE RESULTS

Early Flaw Detection

We established process flows and monitoring systems to detect technical challenges at an early date. This helped resolve flaws in the development process before they affected project schedules.

100% Deadline Compliance

By leveraging a combination of our expertise and emerging technologies, we were able to help the client meet release deadlines and significantly reduced their time-to-market.

Quick Scrap Reduction

Rapid scrap reduction and resource sequencing helped meet to meet aggressive deadlines.

THE CHALLENGES INVOLVED

01 Engineering On A Deadline

Collabera was required to build, train and deploy multiple engineering teams to design, develop, test new product offerings, while ensuring extended reach across product sustenance, support and maintenance activities.

02 Ramping Up To Meet Deadlines

Overall, the client was facing a tight release schedule to launch new product offerings.

THE APPROACH & THE SOLUTION

To address the project needs, Collabera built and deployed three engineering teams with deep domain expertise to work with the client's existing development infrastructure:

- We deployed design features to intercept development flaws early, ensure rapid scrap reduction and enable resource sequencing for faster issue resolution

- Our team helped in developing product components for software/business service as per client's project needs

Founded in 1991, Collabera is a leading global IT staffing and services company that helps enterprises transform their technology, processes and operational models. We empower our customers by overcoming bottlenecks and silos, and building connected business systems that scale in real time.
